Please type or print clearly in ink.

All international students who will require an I-20 form must complete all sections below.

International students who wish to study in the United States must show proof of financial ability to cover all expenses. Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University is required to collect valid evidence of financial ability to pay prior to the issuance of an I-20 form. Students must show proof of funding to cover all expenses. Please refer to the estimated costs below. This evidence should consist of:

1. An official bank statement on original bank letterhead showing that sufficient funds in US dollars are available; or
2. A statement of support from a sponsor, along with evidence of the sponsor's financial resources (in the form of an official bank statement or employer's letter indicating annual salary in US dollars); or
3. An official letter of award from government or other sponsoring organization indicating the terms of the support.

All documentation must be current (not more than 6 months old) and in US dollar amounts.

I. Estimated Cost – This example is for planning purposes only; official bills will be presented after registration. Some courses require additional fees. The University reserves the right to change any of these expenses without prior notification.
